September.
Little Willie Chandler, youngest son of Rev. J. W. Chandler, was attacked with croup night before last, and ere the morning dawned, "his spirit winged its flight back to the God who gave it." Brother Chandler left his "baby boy" in good health Friday morning previous to his death. He was sent for Sunday to see him "cold in death." Never have we seen a mother bear a like loss with more composure and Christian fortitude than did Mrs. Chandler. He will be interred this evening, near Unionville.
