JULIA F. CHANDLER BIBLE CONTAINING RUFUS CHANDLER, HIS WIVES NANCY CUSHING AND ABIGAIL DENNISON, AND THEIR CHILDREN

The Bible's History

It was Lynn Holmes from Virginia, who donated this Bible with the inscription, "Julia F. Chandler from Mother, Dec. 25th 1887" to the Chandler Family Association.

The Bible came from an antique store that her grandparents owned in Leeds, Maine. After some sleuthing we determined that Julia F. Chandler was an Edmund Chandler descendant.

As the Bible was printed in 1887, the Chandler entries were made after the fact and may have been transcribed from an older Bible, other records, and/or memory. Some of the same information can also be found in Maine vital records, but some may be exclusive to the Bible.

The Chandler entries in the Bible begin with Rufus Chandler and his wives in the 1760s, continue with his children and end in the mid 1800s.

Julia F. Chandler was born on Nov. 4, 1857 in Freeport, Cumberland, Maine to Edward Chandler and Almira Webster (see suspected lineage below). Julia never knew her father, Edward Chandler, as he died at sea the same year that she was born. She married Wilbur S. Allan or Allen in Freeport, Maine on June 6, 1896. The marriage was also recorded in nearby Portsmouth, NH. From the subsequent censuses and the age when she married it appears that she had no children.

Julia's lineage: Julia F. Chandler > Edward Chandler + Almira Webster > Rufus Chandler + Abigail Dennison > Jonathan Chandler + Rachel Mitchell > Joseph Chandler + Martha Hunt > Joseph Chandler + Mercy? > Edmund Chandler, the immigrant + ?

Dear Sir:

My brother, Norman Waite, brought me a clipping from the Portland paper entitled, "Whose Bible Is It? I don't know if anyone has asked for the Bible. There are a number of Waites in Portland and I also suppose Chandlers.

I am a distant relative or descendant of Benjamin Waite who was born in 1725. A genealogy of the Waites is in a book called "Chebeague Stone Sloops" Second Edition (revised) and compiled by Z. William Hank (1953) of Boston, Mass. I am including a copy, which I would like to have returned.

If someone has already claimed the Bible they probably have a better claim than I.
