* NOTES for Lorenzo Dow Chandler *******

The spelling of his first name in different listings is variable:
Larenza, Loranza, Loranzo, and Lorenzo.

Lorenzo Dow Chandler's parents are believed to be Anna Ellis and Little Chandler who may have died before Lorenzo was ten years old.

Anna Ellis is thought to be possibly one of three wives of Little Chandler.

The Death certificate for Lorenzo Dow Chandler [TN #26508] lists his father as Lorandy Chandler and his mother as Annie Ellis.

The 1860 US Census causes some confusion with this bible record since it records a James Chandler age 4 [born 1856], but the bible lists William Isadore as born in 1856, and an infant James Ablert born and died 1860.

Lorenzo's 1st wife was Narcissa Louisa Cope
Their Children included:
Mattie E Chandler born abt. 1882

Lorenzo's 2nd wife is Mattie Mai Davis-Chambers-Chandler 1878–1939
Their Children included:
Gladys Ellen Chandler 1902
James Bascom Chandler 1904
Emma Vera Chandler 1905
Levina Chandler 1907

JPG images from a Bible were sent via email to the CFA on March 14, 2012.

That email read as follows:

Hello,

Lonnie Chandler asked me to send these pictures to you. Hope they are where you are able to enlarge them enough to read. Lonnie could tell you better, but this bible was found in an old large barn by a grandson of Dow's - Chester Chandler - who owns the land where the bible was found.

Another 3rd cousin of Lonnie's, Laverne Beisch from Oklahoma, went to Van Buren County last year to research her Davis and Johnson ancestors and was greeted by Grace Kell (a grand daughter of Dow Chandler) who had a "reunion" in Laverne's honor. These are the only photos she took of the bible that Chester Chandler possesses.
